

OPENING
DECEMBER
2012!

... memorable by nature!

Welcome to Chiang Mai's freshest new tourist destination
Elephant POOPOOPAPER Park
located in Mae Rim, Chiang Mai, Thailand!

DISCOVER...

Elephant POOPOOPAPER Park is an eco-friendly, naturally built, outdoor museum park focused on introducing and explaining the unique steps involved in making our world famous paper products from elephant poop fibers. The self-guided and interpretive walking tour requires an average of 30-45 minutes and takes visitors through eight different pavilions explaining each stage of our fascinating process (from rinsing through to product assembly) with our talented artisans and through the use of rich graphics and signage and multi-media presentations.

Visitors will also be introduced to Chiang Mai's long and rich history with traditional paper-making and handicraft production through the tracing of the history of paper from its invention in China almost 2000 years ago and its evolution throughout Asia, Egypt, Europe and the Americas.

In a single destination, Elephant POOPOOPAPER Park encompasses so many aspects of what the typical visit to Chiang Mai is all about: genuine eco-tourism, history and culture; artisans; local crafts; education, fun and one-of-a-kind shopping! Elephant POOPOOPAPER Park is certain to be one of the most memorable parts of any visitor's trip to Northern Thailand.
